Hsiu-Ling Tsui

Project Manager, Office of International Collaboration National Research Program for Biopharmaceuticals (NRPB), Taiwan

Project Manager, Department of International Business Development Development Center for Biotechnology, Taiwan

EDUCATION

M.S., Bioinformatics, University of Leicester, UK, 2007 M.S., Cell & Molecular Biology, Taipei Medical University, Taiwan, 2000

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

June.11 – Present	Project Manager, National Research Program for Biopharmaceuticals (NRPB)
	Project Manager, Development Center for Biotechnology (DCB)
Feb.08 – June.11	Project Manager, Institute for Information Industry (III)
Dec.01 – Oct.06	Senior Technician, Chang Chung Medical University

CERTIFICATION

Project Management Professional Certification (PMP, 2013)

Ling Tsui concentrates on project planning and management for the biopharmaceutical academia-industry collaboration and technology marketing/promotion. She also has practical experience in developing creative healthcare systems by living lab ecosystem. Presently, Ling is managing and executing the "Drug Repurposing Collaboration Pilot Project", which is exploring new indications for existing compounds based on an open-innovation model, between NRPB and AstraZeneca.