Who we are

Planetaria Hotels is an all Italian hotel chain, born in the mid 90's. The belief was to create a new line in the domestic panorama hotels, different from the typically standard hotel chains.

The group of Planetaria Hotels is designed to reflect the idea of personalized welcome, innovative in service, and at the same time, superior in every detail. It is able to transform every corner into a unique place in the heart of one of the most beautiful Italian art cities or in its medieval suburbs.

Product description

Planetaria Hotels is designed to reflect the idea of personalized welcome, innovative in service, and at the same time, superior in every detail. It is able to transform every corner into a unique place in the heart of one of the most beautiful Italian art cities or in its medieval suburbs. The hotels, from four to five stars, are located in historical sites, restored with utmost attention to the identity and the architectural specifications of the building. The meaning of the Planetaria Hotels is an additional experience in which the guest will be absorbed in during his stay: besides the unique quality and the beauty of the buildings, Planetaria Hotels carefully mix the senses of taste, scent, sound, and touch which involve all the five senses.
