DANISH ROYAL VISIT TO ITALY - WE THINK BUSINESS

PROGRAMME – DANISH BUSINESS DELEGATION

ALL URBAN & CLEANTECH HEALTHCARE FOOD & BEVERAGES The intrinsic demand for healthcare services continues to rise, given population aging, the increasing prevalence of chronic disease, and the search for a higher quality of life. Longevity and the advance of new technologies and discoveries - as well as innovative combinations of existing ones – are among the many factors propelling patient empowerment, which is fundamentally changing how we prevent, diagnose and cure diseases. Introduction: Andrea Lanzi, Full Professor of Endocrinology, President Italian Committee of Biosafety, Biotechnology and Life Sciences, President Health City Institute Panelists: Marco Cappa, Professor, Head of Endocrinology Unit, Bambino Gesù Children's Hospital, IRCCS Hospital Ivan Brandslund, Professor, University of Southern Denmark and Lillebaelt Hospital, Denmark Chresten B. Christensen, Senior Vice President South Europe, Ambu William Demant + Widex 12:10 - 12:55 Panel 2: The Transformation of Healthcare and Business Models of the Healthcare systems are beginning to pay for outcomes rather than products, and smart patient-centric services play a key role in the race to capture value and growth. The pharmaceutical and medical technology industries are being transformed as healthcare systems switch their reimbursement model from paying for products or services to rewarding clinical and health-economics outcomes. The task faced by these the industries is far from simple. Introduction: Antonio Nicolucci, MD and Director CORESEARCH, Center for Outcomes Research and Clinical Epidemiology Panelists: Drago Vuina, Corporate Vice President, Novo Nordisk Guillaume Clement, Executive Vice President Europe, Leo Pharma Daniela Santarelli, Director for Market Access, Regulatory & Public Affairs, Lundbeck Massimo Scaccabarozzi, President, Farmindustria (Italian Pharmaceutical Industry Association) Italian Medicine Agency AIFA Conclusions and practical info 12:55 - 13:00 10:45 - 13:00 FOOD & BEVERAGES SEMINAR Venue: Villa Miani 10:45 - 12:00 Room: Sala Bellevue Panel 1: Ready for tomorrow's consumers Sustainability isn't exactly news for the industry, but the need to lead by example and put actions before words appears to be more important than ever. Modern consumers are worried about sustainability and look for responsible food producers. We invited 5 major players and look forward to hear how they handle the increasing demand for sustainable food. Introduction and moderation: Roberto Giovannini, Journalist, La Stampa Panelists: Fabio Brescacin, President, NaturaSì (tbc) Ferrero (tbc) Lavazza (tbc) Alberto Frausin, CEO, Carlsberg Italy (on 0 water CSR project)
